FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1868.

BRITISH PACKET REVIEW.

The month of March 1868 will be memorable for the conclusion of the Cordoba railway contract. Mr. Wheelwright and the Minister for the Interior had scarcely returned from Rosario when the contract was agreed to, signed and ratified by the President. The terms, as expressed in our weekly issue of the 25th inst., are extremely favorable: about 4 per cent. of the capital has been subscribed in Rosario and Cordoba, and the funds for immigration projects have been decided by the several provinces. It is believed the works will be inaugurated in less than a month, although the concession will be presented to the Congress, for its final and national sanction. The upper provinces anxiously desire the realization of this grand commercial enterprise, and there seems no doubt that at least a portion (10 miles) will be speedily laid down.

Cotton, so long regarded a chimera, is spinning convertible, Egyptian, and Nat Cabinet, amidst so multifarious a variety of topics, lays stress in its circulars to the provinces on the experiment of growing this staple. The last seed received from Manchester was divided into 12 bags, of 320lbs each, for the several Government Experimental Farms of the Republic. The last samples distributed have produced a flattering result in Entre Rios, and we possess some cotton grown at Rosario in this province, from seed planted last November: it is of very white color, but weak fibre.

In the chapter of progress and felicity which constitutes the present peaceful annals of this country, we have to sketch a gloomy exception entirely related to disease and disease-like sterility that the Argentine nation has incurred Divine wrath.

The metropolis of Mendoza was the most total ruin of a city in modern times, burying nine tenths of the inhabitants beneath its debris. Yet, Cuyuman is still more unfortunate. Within three years, it has seen the capital stocked by an infantile, rabble, soldiery, it has felt the shock of an earthquake, its plantations and farms have been burnt down by a camp-fire which swept impetuously over the province. The last calamity is perhaps the worst of all—deluge. After 3 weeks rains, the streets of the Andes swelled unexpectedly, and the torrents burst from their beds, overwhelming towns, farm-plantations, and people, in their headlong course. The loss of life and property is only less than that of Mendoza: yet, Cuyuman is the "garden of the New World" in a prey to evil destiny.

The suspicions that ill-feeling of B. Ayres, concerning Entre Rios, were quite unwarranted. The mock commission, sent to investigate the charges of illegal throwing into the Rosario Bank at Concordia, has returned, and their report [illegible] so ridiculous that we heard no more of the machinations said to be on foot against the Parana. Gen. Urquiza is so peaceably inclined that instead of spending any spare cash on Armstrong guns, he has put down his mouse for $20,000 of Cordoba railway stock. He also studies international reform, and Entre Rios is decided by far ahead of most of the sister-provinces.

The elections for the B. Ayres provincial chambers will come off on Sunday 29th inst. The ultra-local party exerts itself to return a list hostile to the National Government. The vice President seems quite indifferent, the anti-capitalists may succeed. The candidates for Governor are, Dr. Navarro de la Hierta, Gen. Gainza, Sr. Lezica, and Dr. Alsina and Obligado, but as yet the electors themselves have not decided who is to be the happy individual. No collision with the Executive is dreaded, at least for this year.

Among our foreign population the great event of the month has been the Irish banquet on St. Patrick's day, which national custom we revived in B. Ayres after a lapse of eight years. The demonstration was patriotic, respectable, and cheering, to all who regard with affection the land of their nativity.

The British hospital had almost become a bone of contention, owing to the Consul having granted a list of subscribers which prevented nine-tenths of the subscribers from voting. Nefilling could have saved the Institute from a timely apology from Mr. Parish at a second meeting (20th inst.) when five very suitable members were elected as committee for the current year. The English ship-masters in port made some vigorous protests against the selection made for captain of the "Admiralty Schooner" in the Inner Port, who lost his life and watch on our wharf, from the joint effects of drowning and imperfect cure. They complained that the Consul had assigned the command a man who possessed no master's certificate, and was not a British subject. We are ignorant alike of the law and facts of the case.

The English press in Spanish America has taken, lately, a great stride, according only to our established organ of daily English paper, in 1861. We have published the first English book in S. America (the River Plate Handbook), and Dr. Lopez "will publish" a weekly in this city and province, to the 13 Argentine provinces, Banda Oriental &c. and a fine postal map of Buenos Ayres lately lent us by the postmaster-general, Sr. Posadas. The demand is so great that 1000 copies are already sold though only published on the 17th inst.

In another month we may expect the various members of Congress to arrive from the interior, for the approaching session. The Ex-National Government is already comfortably quartered in its new domicile, formerly the custom-house; but the Congress-hall in course of construction cannot be finished before next year.

INDUSTRIAL REVIEW.

With the exception of the Province of Buenos Ayres, the industry of the River Plate is at zero. A few saladeros are to be met with along the rivers, two or three foreign colonies, which are mere nurseries for Europe, are established in the interior, but with the exception of these, industry there is positively none, beyond the idle noon of a poorly paying cattle. Entre Corrientes there is every prospect that in a few years, Cotton and Tobacco will become its staples. Entre Rios and Santa Fé sheep-farmers are steadily increasing and wool will be export, but the rest of the Provinces seem to be in eternal siesta for the want of population and capital. We all look forward to the Cordova railway as the means of developing the northern, but immeasurable riches of the interior. The mineral wealth of this Republic is as yet but imperfectly known, we have it from Major Rickard, "that a considerable experience of these countries, that gold, silver, iron and coal abound in many of the provinces, and that, owing to the scarcity of hands, these treasures lie hidden.

Mr Wheelwright's scheme is fraught with such incalculable results to the Argentine Republic, that much of the future of the country depends on it.

In the province of Buenos Ayres everything flourishes. The sheep-farmers are all busily occupied with their flocks, as the lambing season has commenced. The weather is mild, and the districts covered with green clover and gramilla. For many years our farmers have not experienced such a season as the present. The price of good merino sheep is from 7s 6d to 8s; but land for puestos or sheep stations is scarce and dear, and foreigners are obliged to settle almost in the interior of Buenos Ayres, or cross into the province of Santa Fé.

It affords us no small pleasure to comment upon the increasing prosperity of the Southern Provinces of Chile, neither in Australia nor South Africa has this branch of agriculture assumed such proportions as in the River Plate. Thousands of our wealthy Foreign estancieros are men who landed here a few years ago, without one farthing in their pockets. Yet, we know from the receipt of incomes ranging from £600 to £10,0 0 per annum, besides possessing large tracts of land in fee simple, that they have made and mutually become of immense value. N. other business in this country is increasing as rapidly as the sheep business; on all sides new puestos are going up, corrals making, and flocks divided: every sober, steady man, who comes to this country, may feel no doubt of immediate employment, and in a year or two an interest in a flock of sheep, is the first step towards rural independence. The present stock of sheep is estimated at 18 millions, but this is rather under than over the mark. The average increase of flocks may be safely put down at 20 per cent: a good year a flock generally increases itself, but, owing to droughts, &c. the past 4 years have been anything but favorable for sheep farmers.

The wool market is extremely low at present, $85 being regarded as a high price for the very best mustiza wool. Nearly all the sheep-farmers who have already sold their wool now are placing it in store, in the hopes that prices will better before the next shearing. The dry goods business has been very slack during the month. Some importing houses have resorted to auction sales, to free their shelves of old stock. As a general rule, these forced sales have not realised the expectations of the importers. The state of our money market has had a very serious influence on business of every description. Money has, however, since the sailing of the French packet, become much easier, owing to the immense importations of the Bank amongst us, and the liberality of the Bank. The currency is, however, seriously depreciated, and, notwithstanding, the quantity burning seems growing weaker and weaker each day. Ounces, sovereigns and Brazilian gold are coming into great circulation, and condemning money less certainly, this is the inevitable consequence attending such an unredeemable paper. The private banks are doing an excellent business, although not enjoying the right of emission, which belongs exclusively to the National Bank. The great convenience of these establishments, in discounting money at 1 per cent, and both farmers and merchants are beginning to open accounts in these Banks. The London and River Plate Bank stock, we perceive, commanded a premium of £4 per share, per last advices. We have no hesitation in saying that, on an inspection of its books, the Bank would be found intrinsically worth the money.—Baron Mauá, with his usual liberality, has subscribed for 1400 shares of the Cordova Railway stock.

The Northern Railway is now running to Medrano, and doing an excellent passenger business. The works are progressing rapidly. On Sundays and holidays there is positively no accommodating all the passengers who crowd the station. There can be no doubt whatever that this road is making money, and will pay a good dividend to our friends at home.

Rosario, which is the principal river port of the interior, is regaining its former prosperity. During the past month there has been considerable activity in business, and the amount of goods forwarded to the interior provinces evinces an increase commercial vitality. Dry goods are in steady demand, but the importations have not been assorted. Comestibles are in less active demand; sugars show a downward tendency Tobacco is firm, owing, partly, to the rumors of the crop in Tucuman, by the recent lamentable inundations. The arrivals of hides, wools, and copper, have been very limited, while a fair trade, with the exception of the latter article, they are stored, owing to the great depreciation in prices. Flour is very abundant, daily arriving in large quantities from Mendoza and the other provinces. As yet there has been but little exported to Buenos Aires: the current price is 4 dollars per barrel, or 5 dollars per arroba. Owing to the great scarcity of labourers, large quantities of wheat have been lost, the farmers being obliged to pay 20 rls a day to reapers, and even at this extravagant wages few hands could be secured. Fruit, however, is very cheap, the provinces well, and sales have been effected at 1 1/2 boliv. per fanega. The expo ts from Rosario, for the month, have, as usual, consisted principally of cowhides 26,218, horse do 65, calf 774, oat 43,478 lbs, sheep, 13,191 lbs, washed wool 414,779 lbs, dry do, 41,171 lbs, tallow 1,000 lbs, sheep tallow 4525 lbs, horsehair 75,753 lbs. Ships arrived 123, sailed 129. The arrivals from the provinces were, Mendoza and San Luis, 68 carts, and 121 laden mules. We publish the following statistics, in order that our foreign readers may form a more correct idea of the actual state of the trade in the provinces, which, we are happy to say, is showing every sign of improvement.

NEWS FROM THE INTERIOR.

We have dates from Cordoba up to the 20th inst. Gov. Posse had received a despatch from the Government of Catamarca, relating the timely discovery of the O'Mill plot. The deposed ruler is accused of intending to restore himself by a bloody reaction, in which Cores and his friends were marked out for vengeance. After the arrest of the 23rd ult. the revolutionary cohort still smouldered, and a coup d'etat was expected on the night of the 27th. The conspirators was preparing to seize the barracks, when an officer of the guard, with a file of soldiers, surprised them already armed: one was killed attempting to escape, and the others are awaiting punishment. Colonel Valdes, rector of the Catamarca college died on the 7th inst.

The correspondent of the "Eco" from Tucuja, is a great romancer, and studies only to frighten nervous people in Cordoba with threats of the daughty Peruvian Chief. Yet, we learn from the Feb. 24th, talks of filibusters, plunder, and excesses, which might be taken as purely imaginary, but that the Governor, Gomez, repeats the same in an official report to his brother of Cordoba. The Chaco is said to have "converted the Government of Jujuy into a Social Club, where all friends of the old regime congregate, and form schemes for the conquest of Rioja, San Juan, and Catamarca. Tucuja, Cordoba, and Agiero have 300 free-booters Diaz and Calamuchita 400 more, while Pedernera has received 3 wagon loads of armament from Chile, and two from Rioja. The strangest part of the tale is that the Vicar, Rev Dr Sotomayor, "has joined the Chaco, and is now among the incendiaries. On the 23rd Feb. Diaz Tristan and Calamuchita, at the head of a band of gauchos, rushed into Famatina, amid shouts and excitement, seized the Judge, and military commander with 16 respectable citizens, demanding a ransom of 20 ounces. The money was paid, but the prisoners were, nevertheless, cast into a filthy dungeon. Gov Varela robbed the treasury of Catamarca, and fled, and compelled the Legislature, of the province. In this extremity, strange to say, the head of a band of gauchos, appeared to quell the disorder, and the "arch-conspirator" appears a Minister of Peace. Probably there is much exaggeration in the whole affair, and some of the alarming complaints against the Chacho, Rioja might be much worse without him.

Dr. Ocampo, deputy for Congress, has resigned his seat and the Cordoba Government has given orders for a new election. The commissioners of public education send a voluminous report to Gov. Posse, who states in reply that he has increased the staff of teachers, and that "he is at a loss to account for a strange her infant at Cordoba, which causes the Eco to accuse her of parricide.

ENTRE RIOS.

The Uruguay of 24th inst. states that the districts of Tala and Federa on are about to be created into Department. The project for the Civil Code Peru will submit its statutes to Congress begging the right of emission, discount and deposit. The president is Colonel Gelly and Obligado, vice-president Gen. Lopez—Jordan Secretary Don José Sagastume. From Gualeguay we learn the town is progressing and the Bank of Entre Rios, is doing out, the new church and school are being constructed, trade is brisk, the saladeros are working, and two vessels are there loading, leaving twelve more for foreign ports. The plague is raging well. A gold vein has been discovered, and a Mineralogist to Buenos Ayres for chemical analysis.

The Chamber did not meet on the 18th, there being no quorum. There are about 1 members absent. Grand balls are in preparation for Easter. Dr. Benjamin Victorica's resignation has been accepted by the Deputies.

ROSARIO.

The Diario of Wednesday has no news except, in the Rosario's circular to the province of the Cordoba railway contract. The expected visit of Sen Dorrego is still evinced by that paper. The Lanceocin of the guayacha is threatened with a number of prosecutions. We have not received the Porvenir of 21st since last January.

MONTEVIDEO.

The Reforma makes great sport of the Cabildo's eyes and ears, and of the Colon Theatre. The Ocean Queen gave two performances on Wednesday, stating that this is positively the last week. Arthur Napoleon is playing at Solis, with the Dramatic Co. Sr Rodegers gave a benefit for the British Hospital, and Sr Ferrer, the Sp. Consul, Dr Vera, has been made Domestic prefate to the pope, in testimony of his zeal for free church. Mr Gore, tobacco consignee, Mr Mayo was detained on Sunday, of $400, the rogues entered by means of a false key, but did not take any cigars. The owner of Colon Theatre has gave £25 to the Sanitary, in return for permission to have a masked ball in Carnival. A negro, who murdered his mistress and her parents in Canelones, has been taken.

The Chambers are doing little. The news from Colonia is uneclaborary: Mr Gelly, Government Inspector, Mess. Muir & Humbell of the Uruguay Company are making way, in spite of obstacles by order of the Oriental Government. In the mortuary list we find Monday 23rd, Mr. Samuel Kendal, American, 56 years. A terrific row ensued at S. Felipe theatre: Scally beat his opponent gradiator, but refused to pay. The police was called in, and he was the house. The chaplain of the poor Asylum is found dead in his room

COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

PRODUCE REPORT.

Our produce market this fortnight has shown some animation in dry hides principally, of which there has been some demand latterly for the states and Spain. For France Germany and the Mediterranean there is still little animation and freight for the former destination have rather a declining tendency.

There has been little animation in jerked beef, both from this place and the rivers, but the stock is not large and as there has been latterly an insufficiency of adequate shipping there is every probability that more extensive transactions will take place next month.

In salted hides and tallow transactions have not been numerous, the price has advanced a little on account chiefly of better exchange and diminished stocks. The slaughter has been limited and there is little stock on hand.

In saladero produce from the rivers there has been more activity and several sales have been effected in this city and Montevideo.

From the Uruguay; 7100 quintals jerked beef at 14 rls; 8 to 10,000 cows from Dysanda at 41 rls. Montevideo currency or at a guard 10 to 15000 hides at an equivalent of 41 rls on board; 200 pipes tallow at an equivalent of 14 rls; 200 do do at 15 rls; 200 salted hides and 100 pipes tallow at abo 1 the same terms.

We annex a list of sales during the week.

Dry hides—for North America 35,000 hides at 58 1/2 to 59 3/4 for Corrientes; 20,000 hides for Entre Rios 55 1/2 to 61 1/2rls for cis-Salt Rios and Entre Rios; according to weight and sorts.

Salted hides—Sales of 1,000 mvillos at 28rls 600 do at 40rls, last price. The sales of all the season amount to 161200 hides. Stock 300 mvillos. The slaughter since the slaughter this fortnight has been 6100 animals, there being 167 0 hides to make up and no stock.

Tallow—Sales of 1,000 arrobas at 13 rls 100 do at 13 3/4 rls, last price. Stock 300 pipes.

Salted Horse hides—15000 sold at 7 3/4 to 8 rls; 8 to 8 at 7 1/2 rls per 3/4 lb; 2500 do private terms. No stock.

Jerked beef—7500 quintals at 14 rls. Stock 3000 quintals.

Marin grease selling in small lots at 8 to 9 rls per arroba.

Wool—This fortnight there has not been much sale, the stock is rather on account of the manufactory advices received from Europe by the packet, yet prices have not given way as much as expected. But there is little competition.

The total amounts of arrivals this season may be estimated at 1,700,000 hides, 100,000 cows, 40,000 horses, 3000 chilly mules and there are ready for shipment about 3500 hides to be shipped by the ensuing mail, by 40 for marked from this province and Buenos Oriental.

Hides. Arrivals have been limited and prices maintained without any alteration from previous rates. Quota's from South 102 to 105, West 99 to 100, North 80 to 85.

From the provinces we note 11 hides, Cordova 32 1/2 rls, 1 do Entre Rios 35 rls, 20 do Corrientes 29 rls.

Horse hides. Sales have been on a limited scale and selling at 41 to 40 140 currency per dozen.

Carpincho skins—200 Corrientes at 8s.

Cattle, 1600 mavillos at 17 1/2 4000 to kill on the coast of the Parana at private terms.

IMPORTS.

Salt.—This article continues very depressed, the imports being far beyond our wants, nor can we expect any improvement to take place this season.

They amount to 41,240 fanegas chiefly sold at 1 1/2 rls for Liverpool and Cette and 7 1/4 to 8 1/2 rls. fo Cadiz.

Coal.—Our consumers are fairly supplied and show little desire to purchase.

Imports 5047 tons of which 900 to the Company, 450 for the Parana 1000 to 15 1/2 1/2 and the remainder for this place at 11 1/2 to 12 pats on board.

Lumber.—We have to note a further decline in this article.

Imports 1,535,700 feet sold at 34 to 35 1/2 patacons on board of which 300,000 feet pitch.

Tiles.—Per Georgina from Havre 80,000 at 25 pats on board.

COMESTIBLES REPORT.

Our market has experienced no improvement this fortnight, owing to the same causes mentioned in our preceding review and the consequences of the Dark crisis we have passed.

A large part of the dealers persist if refusing to buy for gold in virtue on the commercial which they have signed to that effect and this interferes most materially with the ordinary course of trade.

We notice a decline in the value o Spanish wines. Sales as follows

Tobacco—100 packages Paraguay at 122 duty paid for good and 105 for inferior.

Sugar per Elizabeth Maria from Amsterdam, cargo a private terms; from deposit 200 barrels Havana at 800 duty paid and 200 barrels Brazil private cargo retailed at 16 1/2 rls white; 41 1/4 dollars quebrido; 11 rls, terciado.

Wines—Sales demijohns per Tilsiduo from Barcelona 12 rls.

Wine per Ciudad de Lano 100 pipes tinto, mark Cincellas at 18 pats. per Gerafina 100 pipes tinto, 80 pipes mark Felices at $.500 duty paid; per Tibidabo from Barcelona 433 pipes tinto at 475 pats; 40 quarts seco at 73 pats. per Tibidabo 100 pipes tinto from Seco 190 pipes tinto 464 pats; per Lucio from Cette 125 pipes at $1110 in bond; from deposit 140 casks at 700 and 690 duty paid; 100 casks at 640.

Verba. 120 packages Paraguay at 856 duty paid.

Rice per Dente Affrefron Bordeaux 1735 sacs private terms.

Spirits.—Per Laurcano, from Rio 50 pipes cotia at $1600 duty paid.

Brandies.—Per Maica from Santa Catalina 50 8 aquiaux private terms.

Cofee—Per Mersey from Rio 150 sacks at $500 duty paid.

Vermicelli.—Per Gerafina from 400 cases private terms.

FREIGHTS.

The export business is dull, with the exception of saladero produce. In the rivers there is not much cargo shipping and rates of freight apparently tend downwards. About one third of the hides and tallow now offered for sale are to be shipped, so that very long bids freight will become more abundant.

Ireland—Sale freight has fallen off, there is great activity in saladero produce from the rivers Rates are to remain Lower.

Antwerp—there is not much doing for this destination and rates have declined.

France—the market is rather dull, rates are somewhat tending to decline.

United States—Engagements this quarter have also fallen off, and foreign flags are more sought for. It is difficult to find employment for American vessels.

EXCHANGE.

Transactions by this mail have amounted to £700,000 sterling on England 1/2 0, 0 0 francs on France and Continent and 200 ounces on Brazils at a premium of 2 per cent.

Exchange on England opened at 68 1/2rls and declined successively to 68 1/4 68 and 67 1/2rls which is the last price at the close.

On France it opened at 85 1/2 francs and declined to 85 francs which is the present rate.

On Brazil transaction have been limited and effected at from 2[illegible]00 to 298600 reis.

The paper currency which had declined on account of large stocks in the rivers has come into better demand and several sales have been effected at 21 1/2 per cent.

Paper currency has fluctuated from 118$ which was the quotation by last mail to 125 last day, but since then transactions in specie have been on an average more limited for a month past than for some time previously.

Gold continues to flow in foreign coin into our market, chiefly sovereigns and Brazilian 20,000 reis coins has done much towards supplying specie from actual demand but still they are not admitted universally and in the Bolsa they are quoted at a discount of 1/4 to 1/2 per cent. Eventually it is very probable they will be quoted at par.

CARGO ENGAGED FOR VESSELS LOADING.

For England—41600 salted ox and cow hides, 12000 horse do, 2130 pipes tallow, 1000 tallow, 25 pipes quebracho, 1100 bulk wool, 1730 packages tobacco.
